RE: "Chiate/Wilman" Easement (27910-27920 Pacific Coast Highway); Public Beach Access Feasibility Study

Dear Interested Party:

The Coastal Conservancy announces the availability to the public of a Public Beach Access Feasibility Study prepared for the California State Coastal Conservancy pertaining to the Conservancy's easements at 27910-27920 Pacific Coast Highway in Malibu California. This document analyzes the feasibility of constructing public access improvements over an access easement from Pacific Coast Highway to the beach, and constructing a small public parking facility on another access easement adjacent to Pacific Coast Highway.

A copy of the feasibility report is available from the Coastal Conservancy at the address below for the cost of copying and mailing. To ensure your receipt of further notice of pending Conservancy actions regarding the feasibility report and/or possible construction of the proposed access facility, please write to the Conservancy at:
